Australian Cadet gains first GOLD Award

Clive Robinson, who joined the Clan Matheson Cadet Unit in January, is the holder of the first Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award to be gained in Victoria. The Award was presented to him before he left Australia by Sir Rohan Delacombe, Governor of Victoria, at a ceremony in Government House.

Clive, who had previously attained the Bronze and Silver Standards, had to complete four sections of the Scheme's programme in order to qualify for the Gold Award, and his activities included joining the local fire brigade as a volunteer (Community Service); walking three miles in 32 mins. 35 secs. (Physical Section); completing two long hikes (Expedition).
