The Missions to Seamen

Mr. Anthony Cayzer, who is chairman of The Missions to Seamen Port of London Council, presented the report covering the Council's centenary year to the annual general meeting on 6th July. £130,658 was raised.

The money is being used to modernise Victoria Dock Road Institute and for a two-phase operation at Athlone House to meet the needs of seafarers at Tilbury. Plans for the new centre include accommodation for families.
