He served as purser on many vessels including Llanstephan Castle, Dunluce Castle, Balmoral Castle, Carnarvon Castle and the old Edinburgh Castle, his last ship being Dunnottar Castle. Mr. Middleton retired on April 30, 1949. In March 1943 he was serving in Windsor Castle when she was torpedoed and sunk by enemy aircraft in the Mediterranean.

He worked in the accounts department until he transferred to the insurance department in November, 1962. In addition to his duties in respect of ledgers, he was manager of the general office of the insurance department. Mr. Bloomfield was 55 years old and leaves a widow.

He was a very active member of both the football and cricket teams in the company, and even after he finished playing in London he maintained an interest in his local team.
