

Maiden Voyager

Clan Ranald was taken over at King George V Dock on 16th June and sailed on 18th June for East Africa. Being the first of her class to appear up river she naturally attracted much interest and comment. Her clean uncluttered lines were particularly noticed as an adjoining vessel by contrast seemed to sprout derricks, samson posts, etc. She incorporates many novel ideas in automatic and remote control.