

Awards at Southampton and Plymouth

The annual prizegiving ceremony took place at the Merchant Navy Hotel, Lodge Road, Southampton, on July 1, for the successful engineer officer cadets of the alternative training scheme who are studying at Southampton Technical College.

The prizes were presented by Mrs. P. M. Franklin, a Southampton city councillor and member of the board of governors of the college. The prizewinners were:

Phase I first year

Cayzer, Irvine cadet of the year prize—J. E. R. Findon (RFA).

British Petroleum Tanker Co. progress award—K. R. Austin (CI).

Shaw Savill Line proficiency prize—N. J. Lindsay (CI), N. P. Makin (CI).

Institute of Marine Engineers best student prize—F. W. Perry (CI).

The Marine Society liberal studies prize—M. A. Black (RFA), S. J. S. Austen (Bibby).

Phase I second year

Cayzer, Irvine cadet of the year prize—C. H. Smith (BP).

At left: Mrs. P. M. Franklin presents the Cayzer, Irvine cadet of the year prize to engineer officer cadet C. H. Smith (BP)

Above: After the prizegiving on July 1, outside the Merchant Navy Hotel are, from left to right: N. Lindsay, R. Bracegirdle, K. Austin, J. Sutherland, S. Dick (CI), S. J. S. Austen (Bibby Line), Mr. J. W. Oates, manager of the hotel, Mr. W. K. Mabbett, senior superintendent engineer, N. Makin, T. Perry (CI), J. E. R. Findon (RFA)

Institute prize

Engineer officer cadet N. Marsden was awarded, during his absence at sea, the Institute of Marine Engineers prize for achieving the best work in the study of heat engines at the Plymouth College of Technology during the session 1967/1968. He was presented with the prize—book tokens—by Mr. G. McNee on Friday, July 18.

Right: In his office at Cayzer House, Mr. McNee presented cadet Marsden with his book token award

Part A Successes

The following engineer officer cadets were successful in passing part A of the Board of Trade 2nd class examination:—

R. Heitmann, J. Le Vogeus, J. F. Sutherland, S. W. Dick.