■ The Windsor Castle skiffle group. Jonathan Tickner, bass; Stan Dudley, washboard; Dave Padmore, banjo; John Dimmock, tambourine; Colin Dellar, maracas. CLANSMAN's contact John Dimmock writes: "Seen in all these pictures in various disguises is Stan Dudley the ship's dancer, who has left us after three years continuous service in the vessel. During this period he has featured in the majority of the entertainment. Now unhappily for us he has taken his lady and swallowed the anchor." Pictures: Tony Freeman-Coth, Transocean Photographic.
